SIRM is dedicated to providing education, assessments and related publications to the highest possible standards to enable learners to achieve their full potential. We endeavour to give a reliable standard of service, including taking the greatest care to ensure consistency and reliability of our academic provisions.

As an education provider, our qualifications have been designed to provide up to date knowledge, skills and understanding to all prospective learners. There are a wide range of qualifications which lead to award certificates from the relevant awarding bodies. The course to suit you will depend on your previous experience, qualifications and the career path you wish to follow.

Every learner attending our course receives student registration for the duration of the course. SIRM learners are required to pay a fee for each learner registered on the course. The fees are reviewed annually and published on our website.

SIRM:

- ensures that they have the opportunity to offer a wide range of qualifications which lead to membership, which provide up to date knowledge, skills and understanding to all prospective learners
- ensures that there are robust and effective quality assurance mechanisms in place at school to offer courses
- monitors the courses to ensure that the quality standards are maintained and feedback issues to the learners
- communicates regularly through newsletters and independently as required
- provides required training and networking events
- provides annual training and networking events for all staff, trainers and assessors
- ensures that the website is informative and up to date
- publishes registration fee structure for courses on our website
- despatches certificates within 20 working days or receipt of the pass lists once received from the awarding body
